IRATE BUTCHER ANXIOUS

TO PUNISH TYRUS COBB

Will Either Prosecute Criminally or Sue Him for Heavy Dumages.

Detroit, Mich. June 22.—W. L. Carpenter, the meat market proprietor whom Ty Cobb threatened with a revolver, stated to-day that he was determined to punish Cobb in some way, either by sending him to prison or suing him for heavy damages.

'I will talk the matter over with my attorneys before taking any action," he said, "If they believe it would be better to sue Cobb for damages I'll do that. But if they think I should prosecute him criminally then we will try to put him in prison.

'I believe I owe it to the public as well as to myself to take some action. He's dangerous, and if he is prosecuted this time it may save much trouble in the future."

Harold Harding, whose eye Cobb blackened, refused to-day to swear out

If the game of baseball is ever so far revised as to eliminate the seventh, eighth and ninth Innings, Manager Ryan and his Colts will be so far out in front that a telescope will be of little aid in locating their flying coattails. Yesterday, for instance, just as other yesterdays might be cited, the Colts established an early lead against Portsmouth, and maintained that lead well into the stretch. After it was all over, however, the count stood 10 to 6 against us, and eight of the visitors' against us, and eight of the Visitors ten runs came in the seventh and eighth. Doc Newton was hurt, and Tod Sloan played second, Bunting

Lloyd Ramey was the particular creature of circumstances yesterday. In six innings he had been hit safely only four times, and just two runs had been scored against him. During those six innings the Colts had amassed four tallies and nine safe knocks. But in the eighth Ramey seemed to cave completely. Four times those Pirates mauled him safely, one of which hap-pened to be a double by Manager Joe pened to be a double by Manager Joe Holland, he walked one, delivered himself of a balk and did other things not calculated to help him on to victory. In the eighth they went after him even more merclessly, this time taking five wallops, including two three-base jams. Likewise, Ramey cut loose with a wild pitch at a very inopportune moment that brought home an extra run. Likewise, Ramey cut loose with a wild pitch at a very inopportune moment that brought home an extra run. The total for the inning was another quartet. The other two Pirate runs, which came early in the fray, in the third, to be specific, may be directly charged to Dave Bunting, who, after making a beautiful stop of Humpty McElveen's drive, threw the ball away. In the ninth Manager Ryan gave his new pitcher is chance to show, and he performed in splendid style. The new pitcher's name is Dolly Gray, and many of the fans will recognize him at once, Rightfielding is his regular job, but they do say that he has shown enough to wararnt his being tried on the hill. The first popped to centre, the second tore away with a scratch single and the last, being Mr. O'Keefe, who had hit safely on two previous occasions, whiffed, altogether far better than the average for the day.

Hitting honors were even, both clubs Hitting honors were even, both clubs getting a total of fourteen. Portsmouth saved all for two innings, and therein lies the real reason why the tale-enders were successful in disturbing the calculations of the locals. Mickey O'Brien didn't pitch a good, and he offended through the use of language that the umpire should never have permitted, but he was exceedingly effective with men on bases, and he is a hardworking young man. No Third Major League

Chicago, June 22.—President Johnson, of the American League, said to-day that there would be no third major league this season, if at all. "The third league idea was merely suggested to the National Commission, and it is merely a possibility. No definite action was taken at our meeting in New York."

Dunn Is Ready to Come Here at Any Time.

While all hope has not been lost, it appears that the magnates of the Virgina League have effectually checked Richmond's advance to better baseball before the end of the season. John Punn, owner and manager of the Baltimore franchise in the International League, is ready and anxious to move his club and franchise to Richmond. It is prepared to have his ball club playing here within forty-eight hours after the Virginia League gives its consent to the release of Richmond. In this move, he has the approval of every member of his league. But the Virginia League refuses to give its consent.

In justice to the owners of the Richmond club, it should be said that these men have not only shown every disposition to co-operate, but have gone so far as to say that could the other members of the Virginia League be won over to Richmond's cause, they would dispose of their holdings at a nominal sum. That much was brought forth in a conference held yesterday in the office of Bruce Bowe, one of the stockholders. The other parties at the conference were George M. Cease and W. R. Bradley, secretary of the Rich-

Over in Paris Odds Are Said to Be 10 to 4 in Favor of Johnson-Little Known About True Condition

New York, June 22 .- "Billy" Gibson, New York's leading promoter of boxing clubs, picks Frank Moran, the Pittsburg white hope, to beat Jack Johnson when they meet in a twenty-round fight in Paris next Saturday night. Gibson bases his opinion on Johnson's physical condition. He has received private information from Paris that the negro has taken off a lot of weight, taking part in another battle. It was shrewd judgment to get this match with Johnson, for Moran has the chance of a lifetime. If he beats the negotion to co-operate, but have gone pion since the days of John L. Sul-
